

Specialist Natural History Tour: Little Marvels

Come and glimpse behind the scenes at Glasgow Museums fabulous insect collection. Like in the wild, most of our 200,000 insects are hidden away rather than on public display. Come and marvel at the worlds most diverse groups of animals. See species from around the globe, from the extinct to common and from the bizarre to the beautiful. Find out about the people who collected them and see the tools of their trade.

Date: 6th March 2012

Time: 14:30 -15:30

Place: GMRC (Glasgow Museums Resource Centre)

200 Woodhead Road, South Nitshill Industrial Estate, G53 7NN

It is FREE to visit GMRC and tour our stores, but all visits must be booked in advance. To book contact:

Tel: 0141 276 9300

GMRCbookings@glasgowlife.org.uk

See <http://www.glasgowlife.org.uk/museums/collections-research/online-collections-navigator/Pages/home.aspx> for an introduction to our insect collections

See <http://www.glasgowlife.org.uk/museums/our-museums/glasgow-museum-resource-centre/Pages/default.aspx> for further details about the museum store

If you require further information please contact

Jeanne Robinson

Curator of Entomology

Glasgow Life, Glasgow Museums

Tel: 0141 276 9551

Fax: 0141 276 9540

Email: jeanne.robinson@glasgowlife.org